Special thanks ...

To our team of volunteers who have contributed to the replacement of the pontoon deck and the team of problem solver volunteers who got the radio and the horn on Charlie's Chariot back in order.

It always seems magical that equipment is in good working order ... but we realise that this only happens with the consistent work of our volunteers!

Wonderful Wednesday 17th July 2019

What a great team of volunteers turned up today [17.7/19] on a beautiful sunny & great breeze for sailing day. Six boats were rigged & in the water by 9.15am . Eli gave us all the usual quick run down on the various groups etc that we were expecting before herself , Ivan & Helen Hendry had to leave to attend a funeral of a past member of Manly Sailability.

Before any groups arrived we had time for Dennis to take out Alan [new volunteer] & Ragnhild to take out Nola for an introduction sail . I am told that both Alan & Nola enjoyed the experience very much & will be back for more volunteering at Manly.

Volunteers took the various jobs for today:

Sailing Day Co-ordinator - Ken Boyes

Radio Operator - Tony Jones

Time keeper - Corey Nicholson

Sailors - Ted Talbot , Dennis Linney , Ragnhild Percell , Jim Gale , Michael Burnett , Peter Ward

Pontoon Duties - John Weaver , David Goldner , David Webb, Jennie Fogarty

Charlie's Chariot - Warwick McKenzie , Brian Stitt

Photographer - Ruby Muggridge, great photos, today, Ruby!!

Wilma Johnson - our wonderful volunteer who keeps us supplied with tea / coffee / biscuits & cakes & also took over from Helen Hendry collecting the money from our participants.

Life Jackets - Helene Francois , Tamara Muggridge

New Volunteers - Alan Howes , Nola Borgelt had a great practise sail & then helped on various jobs.

David and Peter in Dolly Wallis

Sailing was beautiful today , great breeze & all participants really enjoyed themselves along with rides in C. C for those who preferred to enjoy time on the water in a motor boat.

Our gorgeous sails!

David and Ragnild in Ralph Newman

The very lucky people who came down today had a wonderful sail: David, Anthony and Richard..The Giles family, Scott, Yula.

From Sunnyfield: Anna, Rosa, Alex, David, Emily, Ginny,,
From Becoswecare: Jack and Chelsea.

From Unisson Fr. Forest; Judy, Adrian.

From Unisson St Ives: Sifa, Mahina, Brodie, Dominique, Rodney, Matthew, Kath, John, Lees, Ollie, Nancy, Elias.

Packing up after sailing was completed in a fashionable manner . Then 12 volunteers went next door to the Manly Skiff Club to talk & lunch with Caroline Holdstock who will soon return to England to look after her sick brother. We all wish her well.

Thank you from Caroline Holdstock

"Thank you so much for organizing the lunch last Wednesday. It was lovely to catch up with everyone and I am very humbled that so many would wish to have lunch with me and hear my news. Please thank them all for coming. I do miss my sailing days on the Harbour with your fantastic group of volunteers and I hope that at some stage in the future I will be back to help again." - Catherine

A Marvellous Monday 29th July 2019

This was probably the warmest day so far in Winter, but unfortunately the wind was a little less than we would have needed. Our fabulous Monday team arrived at Manly Yacht Club to set up the boats, as we were expecting 3 groups. Ivan, Alan, Corey, Ken, Wilma, Tony, Warwick, Nola, Helen, Ragnhild, John W and John P, Brian, Marc, Jim, Jackie, Michael, Jennie and Eli all worked as a team to get out and rig 6 303's, go over and pick up Charlie's Chariot, get out the radio and morning tea. We decided to leave the tents inside as it was very pleasant to sit out in the sun today.

Our new photographer, Nola, in Charlie's Chariot

Ken and Warwick were Charlie's Chariot drivers, Nola was the photographer, Jackie a Sailing Coordinator without parallel, John W a most caring Pontoon Manager. Sailors John P, Ragnhild, Brian, Jim, John P, Michael, and Jennie kept things moving on the water so that all had a great time.

New students from Fisher Rd had the learning experience of their life when they went off, Gwyneth, James and Connor are new, while Eddie has been with us before.

Danielle from BIRDS had a nice solo sail as is her usual, while Steve, Alan, James, Brad, May and Patrick went with a partner. Carlo, and Stuart elected to not sail, just enjoy the scenery and warm air, and I am sure the lunch that followed.

A great day for our memory boxes.

Michael and Patrick in Woody
